Intro riff on D (10th fret) 8x - Rhythm comes in on 5th turn with D's

```
     D          D         Bm                  Bm   G              A                D           D
The docks, the clocks, a whisper woke him up.    The smell of water would resume.
     D          D          Bm                Bm     G         A              D          D
The cave, the waves-- of light the unreal night.   The flat curving of a room.      ...it gets funny.
```

Chorus

```
Bm A                    G   A                  Bm A                        G  Bm G
...   (choke)  Prove it!  ...   Just the facts!   ...   (choke)  Confidential .... |...  ....
A
  On this case, this case, this case that I, I've been workin' on so long,
    D          A    G  A
So long.
```

Repeat intro riff in D 4x

            D                 D   Bm                    Bm            G           A                        D          D
First you creep then you leap up about a hundred feet.   You're in so deep you could write the book.
D                    D                Bm              Bm            G              D                    D         D
Chirpchirp -- the birds - they're giving you the words.   The world is just a feeling you undertook.      ...Remember?
```

Chorus

```
Bm A                    G   A                  Bm A                        G  Bm G
...   (choke)  Prove it!  ...   Just the facts!   ...   (choke)  Confidential .... |...  ....
  On this case, this case, this case that I, I've been workin' on so long,
    D          A    G  A
So long.

Now the rose it flows - You in such colorless clothes.   Fantastic! You lose your sense of human.
    D         D         Bm                          Bm       G                A              D          D
Project- Protect - It's warm and it's calm and it's perfect.   It's too "too too" to put a finger on it      ...
```

Chorus

```
Bm A                    G   A                  Bm A                        G  Bm G
